corrinne.morrison@uxlib.com

Job Summary: To provide exciting, enjoyable, educational programs and camps for school-age children at the Uxbridge Public Library. Develop, coordinate and conduct all children's programming. This includes, but is not limited to, teaching, creation of activities, creating materials, maintaining all records and statistics for all summer programs, marketing and promotion in coordination with existing library staff, and evaluation of the program.

Skills and Qualifications:

- Should currently be enrolled in a post-secondary program. The start date for this position is not conducive to applicants who are currently in secondary school. Preference given to students in a program that relates to teaching or child care and welfare.
- Exceptional people-skills, comfortable presenting to individuals and groups
- Ability to demonstrate independent problem solving and innovative approaches to tasks
- Ability to multitask, prioritize and manage time efficiently
- Ability to act as a mentor/role model for program participants, fellow staff and volunteers
- Strong interpersonal communication skills and concrete relationship building skills
- Ability to work well as part of a team
- Previous experience in planning and conducting activities, programs or camps for/with children strongly preferred
- Experience in supervising a small team preferred

- Self-motivated and well organized
- Ability to adapt quickly
- Solid knowledge of common word processing and publishing programs
- Previous experience in a library setting is an asset
- Community volunteer work preferred
- Bilingualism an asset, but not required
- Committing to work until September 4, 2026 is mandatory. Please note that due to the nature of this role, the expectation is that the successful candidate will work for the entire period with only statutory holidays and weekends as time off.

Only those applicants selected for an interview will be contacted. Interviews will be conducted during the week of April 13, 2026. Thank you for applying.
