Storm Recovery Update

Storm Recovery Update

- The Township has terminated the state of emergency related to the storm. Clean-up and restoration work continues.
- Social service support is available for residents. Please call 905-666-6239 ext. 1751 or email ess@durham.ca

Disaster Relief Assistance

- The Province has activated the Disaster Relief Assistance Program for eligible Uxbridge residents. The program can provide financial relief to assist qualifying homeowners, tenants, small business owners, small farm operators and not-for-profit organizations. To learn more about the program visit www.ontario.ca/page/apply-disaster-recovery-assistance
- The province will be hosting a disaster relief information session for homeowners and another for tenants to answer questions about disaster relief. Check www.uxbridge.ca for more information.

Brush and Tree Removal

- The Township continues to pick up tree debris from the storm from streets in hamlets. The Township has completed brush pick up in urban Uxbridge.
- Residents can put bundles of smaller branches and leaves out for regular yard-waste pick up. Due to volume, the Region may be delayed picking up yard waste.
- The Township will be removing stumps on boulevards later in the summer once crews become available to do this work.
